

“Keep Learning” For Academic Success Resources

Howard University has transitioned instruction to remote-online accessibility. The Office of Undergraduate Studies has prepared a checklist to help Howard students complete the Spring 2020 semester, successfully.

HOWARD UNIVERSITY “KEEP LEARNING” CHECKLIST SPRING 2020

- 1.) Carefully review the information provided by your course instructors, including how to access course lectures, webinars, assignments, and materials. Please consult your instructor immediately if you have questions or concerns.
- 2.) Continue to attend class meetings virtually, submit assignments, and confer with your instructors to ensure that you are making satisfactory progress.
- 3.) Schedule a virtual academic advising or tutoring session. Access Bison Adviser on the Office of Undergraduate Studies website. Also be sure to view our “Keep Learning for Academic Success Resources” page.
- 4.) If you are a prospective May 2020 graduate, you must apply to graduate via Bison Web no later than Friday, April 3rd. Also inform your instructors immediately so they are aware of your prospective graduate status so they can submit your grades by Friday, April 24th deadline. Your academic adviser will contact you regarding the final graduation clearance process.
- 5.) If you encounter difficulty or experience challenges accessing academic support resources, contact your academic adviser as soon as possible <https://ous.howard.edu/academic-advising-offices>. The sooner the issue is addressed, the sooner it will be resolved.
- 6.) Check the University website and your Howard University email daily for updates and information. Your continued academic success is our priority and we look forward to partnering with you this semester!

YOUR CONTINUED ACADEMIC SUCCESS IS OUR PRIORITY AND WE LOOK FORWARD TO PARTNERING WITH YOU THIS SEMESTER!
