The Second-Year Experience Mecca Made is a university-wide initiative designed to create a community focused on the holistic success of 2nd year students.

Virtual Mixer

MECCA MADE Virtual Mixer

THURSDAY, September 17th - 5:00 pm - 6:30 pm

Second-Year students will engage in conversation and community-building activities, learn about the Office of Undergraduate Studies Student Advisory Council, the Second-Year Experience Program and meet the Mecca-Made Peer Mentors. ALL Second-Year students are strongly encouraged to participate.

Blackademic

Scholarship and Research as Activism

THURSDAY, October 15th - 4:00 pm - 5:30 pm

Second-Year students will engage in conversation about how Black scholarship and research can address racial, cultural and politically driven civil unrest in the wake of the violence against Ahmaud Arbery, Jacob Blake, George Floyd and Breonna Taylor – all while the world faces the detriments of the novel COVID-19 pandemic.

Student Success Virtual Summit

SYE Student Success Virtual Summit

THURSDAY, October 29th - 3:00 pm - 6:00 pm

The SYE Mecca Made Summit is a one-stop resource center for second-year students where they can resolve issues hindering their academic progress, and be introduced to varying resources on campus. Second-year transfer students are welcome!

Connections

SYE Connections

WEDNESDAY, November 18th 3:00 pm - 6:00 pm

Second-Year students will engage in workshops organized by the Center for Tutoring & Learning Support Services and other HBCU's with programs that are specific to second-year students.
